

I have found the services provided by XM Radio to be helpful and a compliment to local radio when I am travelling in Boston, MA. It is my belief that these two worlds can co-exist without Federal interference into an area that is probably not even part of the FCC's perview.

It is also my belief that restricting and interfering in business practices is not what this administration is about, so please....Hands off.

Thank you.